AANA RESORT & SPA, KOH CHANG

AANA means elephant in a South India language, and the resort is located on the picturesque island of Koh Chang, in the Gulf of Thailand. Koh Chang, approximately 300 kilometers due east of Bangkok. Surrounded by lush green tropical forest covered mountains on one side, a river and sea on the other, AANA offers a breathtaking ambience and a philosophy of continuously refreshing and reinventing experiences, with an emphasis on personal service.

LOCATION: Located on the west coast of Koh Chang, overlooking the river and close to Klong Prao Beach. Koh Chang is Thailand's second largest island and a designated natural park.

FACILITIES: There's a choice of two restaurants, with the main restaurant 'Cinnamon' and a 'street kitchen' at the beach club. There's also a bar at the beach club, plus a pool bar and a hilltop bar. The spa is particularly impressive. There are two swimming pools, one with jacuzzi, a mini gym, an internet bungalow and a range of activities can be arranged including kayaking and boat trips. There's also a shuttle bus to White Sand Beach.

ROOMS: Rooms are elegantly furnished and well equipped, with views over the pool and bay. Rooms feature a spacious balcony or terrace, contemporary bathroom and stylish furnishings.

TRANSFER: Approximately 50 minutes by boat and road from Trat airport.
