MAJORDA BEACH HOTEL, GOA

The Majorda Beach in Goa is a superb beachfront hotel, its architecture a blend of Portuguese and Goan traditional styles. The 22 acres of beautifully maintained gardens are its real attraction offering a real sense of space and beauty. There is a garden café where breakfast is served, a large swimming pool, and plenty of places to relax with sunloungers and hammocks throughout the garden. Majorda Beach itself has miles and miles of white sand; a walk to the right will lead you to Uttorda Beach and to the left, the beaches of Betalbatim and Colva. A variety of beach activities and watersports are offered on Majorda Beach itself plus the hotel's own beach shack, 'Seashells', which caters specially in seafood and Chinese dishes and also offers theme nights.

FACILITIES:

A variety of eating experiences are available within the Majorda Beach Hotel often accompanied by musical entertainment. The 'Café Del Mar' is a popular coffee shop above the casino/discotheque overlooking the indoor pool, and the air-conditioned Laguna restaurant offers multi-cuisine dishes and overlooks the gardens. The reception bar is also air-conditioned with a pool table and satellite TV. Other facilities offered within the hotel include: tennis, squash, health club with beauty salon, steam, sauna and jacuzzi, and an Ayurvedic massage centre.

ACCOMMODATION:

All twin or double rooms (up to 3 sharing), have an en-suite shower, air-conditioning (included), satellite TV, telephone, mini-bar and a balcony or terrace. Accommodation is offered at the Majorda Beach on a Bed & Breakfast basis. 120 rooms in 2 blocks on split-levels.

TRANSFER TIME:

Approximately 40 minutes from Goa airport.
