LE TOUESSROK

Appearing on Condé Nast's exclusive 'Gold List' in 2011, Le Touessrok is one of the signature resorts of Mauritius, featuring lush gardens, a breathtaking lagoon island, championship golf course, ocean views and sweeps of sparkling sand. A favourite for honeymooners and families alike.

Location: On the east coast in Trou D'Eau Douce, an hour from the airport.

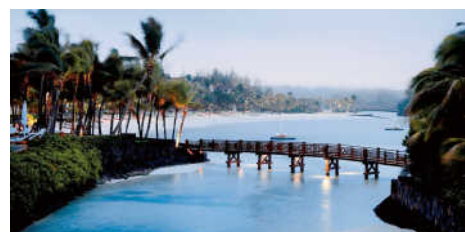

Facilities: The wealth of World Class facilities include three restaurants, including Three-Nine-Eight, the main dining room on three different levels which presents cuisines of nine countries in a "culinary theatre" of eight show Kitchens; and Barlen's, an oceanfront restaurant and bar serving sushi, Western chargrills and Japanese grills.

There's a freeform pool, fitness centre, Bernhard Langer championship golf course (buggy hire payable locally), 'Le T' kids' club with play area, internet café, teen club and complimentary boat to the private Îlot Mangénie island and to Ile aux Cerfs with its watersports.

The Givenchy Spa seeks to bring well-being to the mind through relaxing and rejuvenating the body. Treatment not only includes health and beauty tips, but also nutrition and exercise programmes.

Rooms: 200 rooms and suites feature air-conditioning, butler service, minibar, television, internet, multi-media entertainment system, telephone, hairdryer shower, bath balcony or terrace and sea views. Deluxe rooms (54m²) are as above. Junior suites (65m²) are larger and set either on Hibiscus Beach or on Frangipani Island. Ocean suites (125m²) have a bedroom with separate lounge leading onto bathroom with feature egg-shaped bath. The detached Royal Suite (320m²) features master bedroom, dining room and large terrace.
