WORLDWIDE

Visit three areas of Thailand in one holiday - start in vibrant Bangkok, taking in the temples and markets of this fascinating city. Then fly south to the island of Phuket, famed for its stunning beaches and friendly welcome. Finally head on to Krabi, set on one of Thailand's most beautiful coastlines.

ITINERARY

DAY 1: UK TO BANGKOK

Fly from Heathrow to Bangkok, flying direct and arriving next day. You'll be met on arrival for your private transfer to your hotel, the Rembrandt Hotel, for a three night stay. Spend the next few days exploring Bangkok - take the Skytrain from near the hotel to Taksin Station, where you can hop on a boat and travel down the river for just a few pence, seeing a very different side of Bangkok too.

DAY 5: BANGKOK TO PHUKET

Private transfer back to Bangkok airport for your flight to Phuket, where you'll be met at the airport and transferred to your hotel, the Dewa Phuket, for the next four nights on a Bed & Breakfast basis. The Dewa Phuket is perfect for a relaxing stay in Phuket, with huge rooms and two lovely pools all set just yards from Nai Yang Beach, one of the longest on the island.

DAY 9: PHUKET TO KRABI

Transfer by road from Phuket to Krabi, taking around two hours through some beautiful scenery. On arrival, check in to the Centara Anda Dhevi Resort & Spa for four nights on a Bed & Breakfast basis. This new hotel is set between the beach and the mountains in beautiful countryside, a short walk from the bars and restaurants of Ao Nang.

DAY 13: KRABI TO UK

Transfer to Krabi airport for your return flight to Bangkok, connecting with your onward flight to the UK, arriving later the same day.
